Dear Sir —

I have caused enquiry to be made into the matter of your account further enclosed is a copy - and seen the Hall Porter's Receipt Book in which the Counterfoil is marked "destroyed". He Explains that on the morning of the 17th inst. - You left in a great hurry without paying - and he had begun to make out the receipt - which he then destroyed

If you have any recollection of the amount having been paid please take no further notice of the matter. The Elderly Hall Porter has since left the Hall -

I trust you had a comfortable passage - or as comfortable as possible in these times.

Very faithfully
Rob H Humphreys
Secy.

R. H. Humphrey, Esq.,
Secretary, Royal Societies Club,
St. James Street, S.W.1,
London, England.

Dear Mr. Humphrey:

I have just received your letter saying that you have looked into the matter of my bill, and I regret that any difficulty has occurred about it. I am sending you a money order for two pounds in payment of it. Certainly I was under the impression that I had paid the bill.

I had a very pleasant passage to New York and quite uneventful. Since arriving here I have had excellent weather, though unfortunately the influenza is prevailing very badly in our midst.

I have to thank you for the courtesy of the Club which made my stay in London very much more pleasant.

Yours sincerely,

President.
